1 FROM THE BLACK WE HEAR-- 1

MARK (V.O.)
Did you know there are more people with genius IQ's living in China than there are people of any kind living in the United States?

ERICA (V.O.)
That can't possibly be true.

MARK (V.O.)
It is.

ERICA (V.O.)
What would account for that?

MARK (V.O.)
Well, first, an awful lot of people live in China. But here's my question:

FADE IN:

INT. CAMPUS BAR - NIGHT

MARK ZUCKERBERG is a sweet looking 19 year old whose lack of any physically intimidating attributes masks a very complicated and dangerous anger. He has trouble making eye contact and sometimes it's hard to tell if he's talking to you or to himself.

ERICA, also 19, is Mark's date. She has a girl-next-door face that makes her easy to fall for. At this point in the conversation she already knows that she'd rather not be there and her politeness is about to be tested.

The scene is stark and simple.

MARK
How do you distinguish yourself in a population of people who all got 1600 on their SAT's?

ERICA
I didn't know they take SAT's in China.

MARK
They don't. I wasn't talking about China anymore, I was talking about me.

ERICA
You got 1600?

MARK
Yes. I could sing in an a Capella group, but I can't sing.

MasterClass

The Social Network © 2010 Columbia Pictures Industries, Inc. and Beverly Blvd LLC. All Rights Reserved.

ERICA
Does that mean that you actually got nothing wrong?

MARK
I can row crew or invent a 25 dollar PC.

ERICA
Or you can get into a final club.

MARK
I can get into a final club.

ERICA
From a woman's perspective, sometimes not singing in an a Capella group is a good thing?

MARK
This is serious.

ERICA
On the other hand I do like guys who row crew.

MARK
(beat)
Well I can't do that.

ERICA
I was kid--

MARK
And yes, it means I got nothing wrong on the test.

ERICA
Have you ever tried?

MARK
I'm trying now.

ERICA
To row crew?

MARK
To get into a final club. To row crew? No. Are you, like--whatever--delusional?

ERICA
Maybe, but sometimes you say two things at once and I'm not sure which one I'm supposed to be aiming at.

MARK
But you've seen guys who row crew, right?

MARK
Would you rather talk about something else?

ERICA
No, it's just that since the beginning of the conversation about final clubs I think I may have missed a birthday.
(can't get over it)
There are really more people in China with genius IQ's than the entire population of--

MARK
Yes. The Phoenix is the most diverse. The Fly Club, Roosevelt punched the Porc.

ERICA
Which one?

MARK
The Porcellian, the Porc, it's the best of the best.

ERICA
Which Roosevelt?

MARK
Theodore.

ERICA
Is it true the clubs send a bus around to the other schools--

MARK
Yeah.

ERICA
--to pick up girls who want to party with the next Fed Chairman?

MARK
You can see why it's important to get in.

ERICA
Okay, well, which is the easiest one to get into?

MARK takes a sip from his drink...

MARK
Why would you ask me that? *

ERICA
Just asking.

MARK
None of them, that's the point. My friend Eduardo made $300,000 betting oil futures one summer and Eduardo won't come close. * The ability to make money doesn't impress anybody around here. *

ERICA
That must be nice.

MARK
(big deal)
Eh.

ERICA
$300,000 in a summer? *

MARK
He likes meteorology.

ERICA
You said it was oil futures.

MARK
You read the weather you can predict the price of heating oil. I think you asked me that because you think the final club that's easiest to get into is the one where I'll have the best chance. *

ERICA
I asked--what?

MARK
You asked me which one was the easiest to get into because you think that's where I have the best chance.

ERICA
The one that's easiest to get into be the one where anybody has the best chance. * *

You didn't ask which was the best one, you asked which was the easiest one.

ERICA
I was honestly just asking. Okay? I was asking just to ask. Mark, I'm not speaking in code.

MARK
Erica--

ERICA
You're obsessed with the finals clubs. You have finals clubs OCD and you need to see someone about this who'll prescribe some sort of medication. You don't care if side effects may include blindness.

MARK
Final clubs. Not finals clubs and there's a difference between being obsessed and being motivated.

ERICA
Yes there is.

MARK
Well you do--that was cryptic--so you do speak in code.

ERICA
I didn't mean to be cryptic.

MARK
I'm saying I need to do something substantial in order to get the attention of the clubs.

ERICA
Why?

MARK
Because they're exclusive. And fun and they lead to a better life.

ERICA
Teddy Roosevelt didn't get elected president because he was a member of the Phoenix Club.

MARK
He was a member of the Porcellian and yes he did.

ERICA
What about concentrating on being the best you you can be?

MARK
Did you really just say that?

ERICA
(beat)
I did, but I was joking. Although just because something's trite it doesn't make it any less--

MARK
I want to try to be straight forward and tell you that I think you might want to be a little more supportive. If I get in I'll be taking you...to events, to gatherings...and you'll be meeting people that you wouldn't normally get to meet.

ERICA
(smiles)
You would do that for me?

MARK
We're dating.

ERICA
Okay, well I want to try to be straight forward and tell you that we're not anymore.

MARK
What do you mean?

ERICA
We're not dating anymore, I'm sorry.

MARK
Is this a joke?

ERICA
No, I'm sorry, it's not.

MARK
You're breaking up with me?

ERICA
You're going to introduce me to people I wouldn't normally get to meet? What the hell is that supposed to mean? *

Along with the MUSIC, we slowly push in on MARK. A fuse has just been lit.

As MARK busts out of the bar, past Bobby the door guy and into the population of Harvard Square.

3 EXT. HARVARD SQUARE - NIGHT 3

As MARK continues on, he passes a group of people heading in the opposite direction for a party.

As MARK's steady and determined stride continues, he'll pass by all kinds of (seemingly) happy, well-adjusted, socially adept people.

5 INT. MARK'S DORM ROOM - NIGHT 5

A bedroom that's part of a three-bedroom suite. The MUSIC CONTINUES as MARK walks in, flicks his lap-top on without looking at it and walks out of frame as we stay on the laptop.

Then a moment or two later, a glass with ice gets set down next to the lap-top. Then a carton of orange juice followed by a bottle of vodka.

MARK's fingers dance easily on the keyboard--like a Juilliard pianist warming up.

In the exact time it takes him to pour the vodka and orange juice over ice, the website he's just called up gets loaded onto the screen.

This is the only place he's comfortable.

In back of MARK, sitting on the bed, is BILLY OLSON. *

MARK (V.O.)
The truth is she has a nice face. I need to think of something to help me take my mind off her. Easy enough, except I need an idea.

MARK has moved his mouse to an icon on his desktop labeled "Kirkland Facebook". He clicks and opens it. A menu of photos appear. He blogs again.

Four college girls are already waiting in line but that number's about to grow as the bus pulls up and opens its doors.

MARK is wearing a hoodie, sweatpants and Adidas flip-flops--a personal uniform that we'll come to understand. And while it may take us a while to notice it, MARK's a different person in these flash-forward scenes. Still tortured and complicated, but comfortable now with his own power.

His lawyer is SY, who's accompanied by some junior associates, one of whom--a pleasant, pretty and professional young contemporary of Mark's named MARYLIN, we'll get to know.

On the other side are EDUARDO and his lawyer, GRETCHEN, also accompanied by some associates. A STENOGRAPHER is typing the record.

The room is glass on two sides and through the windows we can see the behemoths of Silicon Valley--Oracle, SunMicrosystems, Google, etc.

GRETCHEN is taking MARK's deposition.

GRETCHEN
So you were called in front of the Ad Board.

MARK
That's not what happened.

GRETCHEN
You weren't called in front of the Administrative Board?

MARK
No, back, I mean--That's--back at the bar with Erica Albright. She said all that?

SY
Mark, I wouldn't--

MARK
That I said that stuff to her?

GRETCHEN
I was reading from the transcript of her deposition so--

MARK
Why would you even need to depose her?

GRETCHEN
That's really for us to--

MARK
You think if I know she can make me look like a jerk I'll be more likely--

Why don't we stretch our legs a minute, can we do that? It's been almost three hours and frankly you did spend an awful lot of time embarrassing Mr. Zuckerberg with the girl's testimony in the bar.

MARK
I'm not embarrassed, it's just that she made a lot of that up.

GRETCHEN
She was under oath.

MARK
Then I guess that would be the first time somebody's lied under oath.

People are stretching and getting coffee and talking quietly. MARK stays in his seat.

MARYLIN, the attractive second year associate who's on Mark's legal team is still sitting too...about four seats down from Mark.

MARYLIN

95 EXT./EST. AUDITORIUM - NIGHT 95

The lamps in Harvard Yard light the snow falling.

SPEAKER (VO)
The light bulb event--the inciting action-- was when he was at Out of Town News and picked up a copy of Popular Electronics that had the MITS Altair Kit on the cover.

96 INT. AUDITORIUM - SAME TIME 96

There's a lower-level and a balcony and both are full.

MARK and EDUARDO are sitting in the second to last row of the balcony.

We'll hear the SPEAKER but we'll only get to see him in a slightly blurry image as our attention is on MARK and EDUARDO.

SPEAKER
It was a beautiful day and I was in my room at Radcliffe and he brought me the magazine and he said, "Look, it's going to happen without us, we've got to do it now." And so I said, "Okay, you're right. Let's get BASIC out there."

He gets an appreciative LAUGH from the STUDENTS.

SPEAKER (CONT'D)
Most of you think you know the rest of the story but you may not.
(beat)
The beginning of this revolution was modest. The kit computer on the cover of that magazine--

We HEAR a little muffled giggling coming from the row behind MARK and EDUARDO. MARK is too into the speech to notice but the giggling registers as a slight annoyance on EDUARDO's face.

SPEAKER (CONT'D)

EDUARDO hears the giggling again and turns around.

Way cool. I'm Christy. This is Alice.

EDUARDO can't help noticing--just because it's in his line of sight--that down the row from the girls, someone else is pointing at them and whispering to a friend.

Then back to the girls--

EDUARDO

Very nice to meet you.

CHRISTY

109 INT. LARRY SUMMERS' OUTER OFFICE - DAY 109

CAMERON and TYLER, in dark suits, are waiting to see the president of Harvard.

The President's office is in one of the two oldest university buildings in the country, and the SECRETARY sitting at the desk is even older. You get the sense that she thinks Harvard would be a better place if it weren't for all these students.

She looks at them and the boys give her a polite smile and a small nod before she goes back to her work.

CAMERON
(just making small talk)
I've never been in this building.

SECRETARY
(without really looking up)
This building is a hundred years older than the country it's in.

CAMERON
(that's interesting)
Hm.

SECRETARY
So do be careful.

TYLER
We're just sitting in chairs.

SECRETARY
(into phone)
Yes.
(into phone)
Very good.

She hangs up the phone.

SECRETARY (CONT'D)
You can go in now.

She points to a door and CAMERON and TYLER get up, quickly straighten themselves, and walk into

110 INT. SUMMERS' OFFICE - CONTINUOUS 110

LARRY SUMMERS, a large man, is on the phone at his desk in his well-appointed office. A fire crackles in the sitting area and a 40-ish African-American woman, ANNE, in a pants suit is nearby going over some papers.

SUMMERS waves the boys in--

SUMMERS
(into phone)
That's just their own stupidity, I should have been there.
(into phone)
Darkness is the absence of light and stupidity in that instance was the absence of me.

SUMMERS motions for them to sit and they do. They take in some of the photographs around the room--SUMMERS with BILL CLINTON, etc.

SUMMERS (CONT'D)
(into phone)
Catherine, I have students in my office now.
(into phone)
Students.
(into phone)
Undergrads.
(into phone)
I don't know, from the looks of it I think they want to sell me a Brooks Brothers franchise.

SUMMERS hangs up the phone--

SUMMERS (CONT'D)
Good morning.

CAMERON
Good morning, sir. I'm Cameron Winklevoss and this is my brother, Tyler.

CAMERON is extending his hand but instead of taking it, SUMMERS reaches to the top of a pile of papers and pulls a ten-page letter off the top.

SUMMERS
And you're here because...

There's silence while SUMMERS appears to read over the letter...

SUMMERS (CONT'D)
Either one of you can answer.

CAMERON
I'm sorry, I thought you were reading the letter.

SUMMERS
I've read the letter.

SUMMERS
I understand. I'm asking what do you want me to do about it. *

CAMERON points to a row of Harvard Student Handbooks on the bookshelf behind SUMMERS.

CAMERON
Well sir, in The Harvard Student Handbook, which is distributed to each freshman--under the heading "Standards of Conduct in the Harvard Community" and the sub-heading, "Honesty"--

SUMMERS can't help an agonized sigh— *

CAMERON (CONT'D) *
--it says, "The College expects that all students will be honest and forthcoming in their dealings with members of this community. All students are required to respect private and public ownership. Instances of theft, misappropriation--

SUMMERS

SUMMERS
Punch me in the face.
(then to CAMERON)

CAMERON

SUMMERS
You've spoken to your House Master?

CAMERON
Yes sir, and the House Master made a recommendation to the Ad Board but the Ad Board won't hear us.

SUMMERS
Have you tried dealing with this other student directly?

CAMERON
Mr. Zuckerberg hasn't responded to any of our e-mails or phone calls for the last two weeks. He doesn't answer when we knock on his door at Kirkland and the closest we've come to talking face to face is when I saw him on the quad and chased him through Harvard Square.

SUMMERS
You chased him?

CAMERON
(beat)
I saw him and I know he saw me and I started after him but he disappeared.

SUMMERS
I don't see this as a University issue.

TYLER
Of course it's a University issue. There's a code of ethics and an honor code and he violated them both.

SUMMERS
You entered into a code of ethics with the university, not with each other.

142 EXT. THE THAMES - DAY 142

We're looking at a stone bridge crossing a perfectly straight stretch of water against the backdrop of the medieval town of Henley, England--founded in 1179.

And after a moment of placid quiet--

--BOOSH!

Two razor thin skulls explode for the final, agonizing hundred-meter stretch of the ancient and prestigious Henley Royal Regatta.

The two boats are neck and neck. The port-side boat is being crewed by the two Dutch members of the Hollandia Roeiclub. The starboard boat is being crewed by a pair of identical twins wearing tank tops bearing the "H" of Harvard.

We HEAR the ROAR come up from the CROWD in the viewing section. The crowd is dressed as if for opening day at Ascot--the women in flowing dresses and wide-brimmed hats, the men in blazers and brightly colored floral ties.

But the young men in the boats can barely hear the crowd. Just their own breathing as they pull against the longest natural straight stretch of water in the world--a mile and a half torture test against the best competition they've ever faced.

And they're neck and neck. CAMERON and TYLER can't shake the Dutch.

The CROWD is going crazy. Mixed in with the British crowd is a small contingent waving the flag of Holland and a slightly larger contingent of Americans.

We'll notice a stoic man in a VIP viewing section and later we'll be introduced to him as Cameron and Tyler's father. Next to him is their mother, who can barely watch.

Back on the boats it's just the breathing as the skulls slice through the water like jet-powered knives. 50 meters now and there's still no daylight between them. *

25 meters and the Dutch and American fans are going crazy--even the British aristocracy can't help but get caught up in the closest race in the history of the competition. The FATHER is silently willing his boys one more fraction of boat speed--the MOTHER has her hands over her mouth in praying position. *

POP!

--the finish gun is fired into the air, the oars come out of the water and the bodies of the crewmen slump over.

CAMERON turns his head to the cheering crowd to see the Dutch group holding a giant flag and jumping up and down. The Americans bring their giant flag down and fold it up.

The two DUTCH CREW MEMBERS pump their fists in the air and hug as the two boats skim along to a gentle stop.

The MOTHER drops her head and looks down. The FATHER refuses to look away.

From CAMERON and TYLER, just the breathing.

145 INT. PALO ALTO HOUSE - NIGHT 145

There's a thunderstorm going on outside and rain is beating hard against the windows. DUSTIN, ANDREW and the INTERNS are hard at work writing code. Green Day is pumping from the speakers.

SEAN is pacing the house on his cell phone while two YOUNG WOMEN--dressed to go out for a party--are at the moment each on a free computer playing each other in a game of Counter-Strike. Basically they're shooting at each other and missing and laughing their heads off.

It wouldn't appear as if the house has been cleaned since the last time we saw it and in fact there are signs of more wreckage as well as futons, pillows and blankets on the floor.

There's also a 12-foot bong that reaches the middle landing of the staircase.

SEAN

It's gonna be like I'm not part of Facebook.

SEAN
It's not gonna be like you're not part of Facebook, you're not part of Facebook.

EDUARDO
My name's on the masthead.

SEAN
Check again.

EDUARDO is momentarily frozen...

EDUARDO
This is because I froze the account?

SEAN
You think we were gonna let you parade around in your ridiculous suits pretending you were running this company?

EDUARDO
Sorry, but my Prada's at the cleaners along with my hoodie and my fuck-you flip-flops you pretentious douchebag.

SEAN
Security's here. You'll be leaving now.

Two SECURITY GUARDS have come in--

EDUARDO
I'm not signing those papers.

SEAN
We'll get your signature.

EDUARDO
(turning to MARK)
Tell me this isn't about me getting into the Phoenix!
(pause)

EDUARDO (CONT'D)
You did it. I always knew you did it. You planted the story about the chicken.

SEAN
(pause)
What is he talking about?

MARK
I didn't.

EDUARDO
You had me accused--

MARK
Wardo--

SEAN
Seriously, what the hell's the chicken?

EDUARDO
And I'll bet what you hated was that they identified me as a co-founder of Facebook--which I am! You better lawyer-up, asshole, 'cause I'm not comin' back for my 30 percent, I'm comin' back for everything!

SEAN
(to SECURITY)
Get him outa here.

EDUARDO
I'm going.

SEAN
Hang on.

SEAN hands EDUARDO a folded check."

SEAN (CONT'D)
There's your $19,000. I wouldn't cash it, though, I drew it on the account you froze.

EDUARDO looks at SEAN...then suddenly and quickly cocks his fist back to punch him in the face. SEAN flinches as EDUARDO holds his punch and lets out a small laugh.

EDUARDO
I like standing next to you, Sean. It makes me look tough in comparison.

EDUARDO exits with the security escort.

There's a long silence in the room...

SEAN
That's it, that's our show for tonight. So I want to see everybody here geared up for a party. We're gonna walk down to the club like it's the Macy's Parade. Mackey, put it up on the screen, we've gotta be almost there.

A young employee hits a remote and a few keys on his computer and a huge flat-screen displays a Facebook page with a read-out of the number of members.

999,982

There's scattered applause and excitement as everyone watches.

SEAN takes MARK aside.

SEAN (CONT'D)
You alright?

MARK
Yeah.
(beat)
You were kinda rough on him.

SEAN
That's life in the NFL.

MARK
You know you didn't have to be that rough on him.

SEAN
Listen, I'm putting together a party--

MARK
Sean? You didn't have to be that rough on him.

SEAN
Yes I did.

MARK
Sean--

SEAN
He almost killed it, yes I did. Now I'll send flowers. Speaking of flowers, I'm putting together a party after the party at Kappa Eta Sigma. Ashleigh's a sister. *

MARK
Uh...Ashleigh?

SEAN
The intern.

Excuse me, Mark?

We were just talkin' about you. *

MARK *
Just that you're doing a good job. *

ASHLEIGH
Thanks, I appreciate that. *
(to MARK)
This came in for you.

MARK
You can put it on my desk.

ASHLEIGH puts the small package on Mark's desk.

SEAN
What's the package?

MARK
Nothing.

SEAN
(calling out)
Mackey!

MACKEY
(calling back)
Yes sir!

SEAN
Refresh!

MACKEY hits the "refresh" key and the big screen shows--

1,000,002

CHEERS erupts throughout the place. SEAN grabs MARK and hugs him but MARK doesn't quite hug back... *

We can hear the thumping music coming from the party inside and college kids have spilled out onto the front lawn of this pristine, four-columned house.

168 INT. SORORITY HOUSE - NIGHT 168

It's dark but we can make out people dancing. The place is packed.

CUT TO:

169 INT. BEDROOM - NIGHT 169

We hear the thumping music from the party. SEAN's in there with a couple of guys, ASHLEIGH and two other girls. SEAN's got his cell phone out and will snap a picture every once in a while. *

FRATERNITY GUY
Do it on anything. You can use a CD.

SORORITY GIRL #2
You can do it off me. *

The girl's sat on the bed and unbuttoned her top. Her shirt's unbuttoned all the way but we can't really see anything--just the part of her chest that's being used as a surface off of which to snort coke.

SORORITY GIRL
Alright!

The GIRL taps out some coke from a vial onto the other girl's chest and starts passing around a rolled up 20-dollar bill for everyone to have a turn and she herself will unbutton her shirt too for the same purpose. All this while SEAN is talking.

SEAN
The next transformative development? A picture sharing application. A place where you view pictures that coincide with your social life. It is...the true digitalization of real life. You don't just go to a party anymore, you go to a party with your digital camera and your friends relive the party on Facebook. And tagging. The idea--

SORORITY GIRL #2
Would this be easier without the bra?

FRATERNITY GUY
It's worth finding out.

The girls start happily slipping off their bras--

SEAN
I've spent hours--

ASHLEIGH
Why has the music stopped?

SEAN
I've spent hours watching what people do when they log on.

ASHLEIGH
Seriously, why has the music stopped?

ASHLEIGH has a point. The music stopped in the middle of SEAN's speech and the sound outside from the party just doesn't sound like a party anymore.

SEAN
How they always checked their friends' status updates, checked to see which of their friends had changed their profiles, changed their photos and mostly...We lived on farms, then we lived in cities and now we're gonna live on the internet.

ASHLEIGH
Sean. Stop. Something's going on downstairs.

SEAN stops talking...he senses it too now.

SEAN walks out of the room to the--

170 INT. STAIRCASE LANDING - CONTINUOUS 170

And out the window he sees a fleet of police cars with their lights flashing parked in front of the house. Then before he can react, the front door flies open--

POLICE with flashlights walk in--the beams of light streaking across the darkened party floor and the faces.

We HEAR muffled murmurs from the cops of "party's over" and "step to the side" and "nobody's leaving just yet", etc.

SEAN bolts back into--

SEAN
It's the cops.

And they all spring into action. The girls are putting their bras back on, SEAN is wiping down a night table with the palm of his hand to get the coke dust off.

SEAN (CONT'D)
Your chest.

SORORITY GIRL
Shit.

FRATERNITY GUY
Be cool.

POLICEMAN
What's goin' on?

They turn to see TWO POLICEMEN standing in the doorway, their flashlights scanning the room and hitting SEAN's eyes.

SEAN
(beat)
We're sorry, was the music too loud?
We've got kind of a celebration going.

POLICEMAN
Ladies, I need you to put your shirts on.

SEAN
I can have them turn the music down.

One of the policemen casually takes SEAN's hand and sees that his palm looks like he just used it to erase a blackboard. The cop uses his finger to taste what it is.

SEAN (CONT'D)
Yeah, that isn't mine.

POLICEMAN
Okay, could you all stay where you are.

And the handcuffs start to come out and we've got a room of terrified children.

SORORITY GIRL
Wait, can we just talk for a second?

We start to move in on SEAN...

(to SEAN)
You got anything in your pockets I need to know about?

SEAN
No sir.

POLICEMAN
Don't be stupid now.

SEAN
I don't.

POLICEMAN
(out of SEAN's shirt pocket)
What's this?

SEAN
It's an Epipen.

POLICEMAN
And this?

SEAN
That's my inhaler.

POLICEMAN #2
Ladies, how old are you?

SORORITY GIRL
I'm 20.

ASHLEIGH
I'm 20.

POLICEMAN
Lying makes it worse.

ASHLEIGH
I'm sorry, I shouldn't have lied.

SEAN closes his eyes at hearing this news as we HEAR the sound of the cuffs lock around his wrists and we

Hello?

INTERCUT WITH:

173 EXT. POLICE STATION - NIGHT 173

SEAN, freezing with no coat on, is sitting on the bottom of the steps to the police station. The LAWYER we've seen before is standing in back of him.

SEAN
(into phone)
Listen, something's happened.

We see MARK listening on his end but can't hear SEAN's end of the conversation.

MARK
(pause)
Shit.

SEAN
It's alright, it's gonna be alright. I've posted bond and I wasn't doing anything. I mean, I've got allergies so I can't--

We're back on MARK's side. He listens...listens...

MARK
Interns?

Back on SEAN's side--

SEAN
It was just a party.

MARK
(evenly)
This is gonna be news, Sean, it's gonna be online any second.

SEAN
(beat)
I know.

I'll get it under control. I'll call someone and see what the next move is. But this is gonna be news now.

SEAN
(beat)
Do you think Eduardo was involved. Do you think--

MARK
No.

SEAN
Or Manningham. One of them. Somebody. Somebody sent that coke in their 'cause it got in there. You believe me, right? This is gonna be fine, I've been here before, but you believe me, right?

MARK
(cool as ice)
Go home, Sean.

MARK clicks the phone shut. He sits there a moment.

He looks at the small package that Ashleigh dropped on his desk earlier. He opens up the brown paper wrapping and there's a box.

He opens the box--a thousand brand new business cards. He takes one of the business cards out and looks at it.

I'm CEO...Bitch

And over this we HEAR a woman's voice...

MARYLIN (V.O.)
Mark?

CUT TO:

174 INT. FIRST DEPOSITION ROOM - NIGHT 174

MARK is sitting alone in the conference room. The only one left is MARYLIN, whose voice we just heard. The lights of the San Francisco skyline fill the huge picture windows.

I know that. When's there's emotional testimony I assume that 85% of it is exaggeration.

MARK
And the other 15%?

MARYLIN
Perjury. Creation myths need a devil.

MARK
What happens now?

MARYLIN
Sy and the rest of them are at the Palm having a steak. Then they'll come back up to the office and start working on a settlement agreement to present to you.

MARK
They're gonna settle?

MARYLIN
Oh yeah. And you're gonna have to pay a little extra.

MARK
Why?

MARYLIN
So that these guys sign a non-disclosure agreement and indemnify you. They say one unflattering word about you in public and you own their wife and kids.

MARK
I invented Facebook.

I'm talking about what a jury'll see. I specialize in voir dire--jury selection. And what the jury sees when they look at the defendant. Clothes, hair, speaking style, likability--

MARK
Likability?

MARYLIN
I've been licensed to practice law for all of 20 months and I could get a jury to believe you planted the story about Eduardo and the chicken. Watch. Why weren't you at the sorority party that night?

MARK
You think I'm the one who called the police?

MARYLIN
Doesn't matter. I asked the question and now everybody's thinking about it. You lost the jury in the first 10 minutes.

MARK
(pause)
Farm animals?

MARYLIN
Yeah.

MARK
I was drunk and angry and stupid.

MARYLIN
And blogging.
(pause)
Pay the fine. In the scheme of things it's a speeding ticket. That's what Sy and the guys'll tell you in the morning.

MARK
Would anyone mind if I stayed and used the computer for a minute?

MARYLIN
No. There's a night guy downstairs. Stay as long as you want.

Thanks. I appreciate your help today.

Erica's name and picture come up, along with Boston University, '07. Mark smiles. She's on Facebook.

He moves the mouse back and forth between two boxes: "Send a Message" and "Add as a Friend".

He clicks on "Add as a Friend".

A box comes up that reads: "Your request to add Erica Albright as a friend has been sent."

Then MARK clicks to his homepage and waits for the response.
